After-Dinner Cocktails

HUXLEY SIGNATURE SAZERAC

10.00

'Jack Daniel's Rye' represents one of JD's first new jaunts since the mid-1800s which coincidentally was the era in which the, 'Sazerac' cocktail was born. Equal measures of spicy Rye & Baron Signonac's decadent, 'VSOP Armagnac' are stirred down with 'Peychaud's Bitters' then poured over ice by the guest.

PEAR & RISTRETTO NEGROSKI

10.00

PA delectable digestif served in a brass cafetière and infused with single origin coffee beans. 'Grey Goose Poire' brings the pear element, richness and a silky texture. Martini's premium vermouth, 'Rubino' marries the flavours effortlessly. A warm, fuzzy feeling to finish served over ice.

Sweet Wines

Top dessert wines must deliver as much freshness as sweetness. From bouncy, fruity sweet wines from N. Italy to the best wine you'll ever smell, from Canada, a great dessert wine can crown a wonderful meal.

Inniskillin Riesling Icewine*	Niagara, Canada	11.00	22.00	100.00

*PRODUCER SPOTLIGHT: INNISKILLIN, NIAGARA PENINSULA, CANADA

I remember trying this at the London Wine Fair in 2013, it blew anything else I'd tried that day (150+ wines!) out of the water. It's no wonder Inniskillin's winemaker and native Canadian Bruce Nicholson has twice been awarded "Top Winemaker in the world". Made from grapes which freeze in the -8C conditions, this Riesling Icewine has an abundance of vibrant aromatics including peach, pear, and lime. On the palate, notes of honey, apricot and mango are balanced by a crisp and lively acidity.

- Andy, Sommelier.

Port & Sherry

PRODUCER SPOTLIGHT: SANDEMAN'S PORT, EST 1790.

There are few more iconic images in the world of wine than, "The Don", the logo created for the Sandeman family in 1928 by George Massiot Brown. Today, their wines are good enough to be every bit as famous as the image of the Don landing award upon award for their aged tawny ports especially.
